A Class Reunion. On Tuesday evening. October 16th, the home of Mr. A. P. Heyer, 165 Franklin street, was the scene of a happy class reunion. Mr Heyer entertained twentythree of his former associates of the Young Men's Bible Class of the Marcy Avenue Baptist Church of Brooklyn. Long before the house was reached they could be heard sidging college songs as they marched lock step up to the veranda. The first glance into the house produced a roar and a cheer from the assembly enthusiastic enough to raise the roof. Japanese lanterns adorned the front stoop, but the parlor decorations were most beautiful. Instead of a parlor the dimly lighted room seemed to be a moonlit autum forest. All the furniture har been removed and garden seats substituted. Huge branches of red and gold maple leaves had been strung on wires and aged resident of Nutley, was in- all over the walls and ceiling. Cypress terred in the semetery here on Tuesday trees had been cut down and placed in tue corners. Jardiners of fall flowers and berries were in the fireplace. The manlle was covered with ferns and grasses, honeysuckle viues and pumpkins and squash cut open stood as receptacles for fancy cakes. Near the mantle stood a huge hollow stump of a tree in which was a jardinier filled with apple cider. This was Mr. Heyer's idea and he carried it out to a further extent by twining a large grape vine from the boor to the ceiling and all about the pictures on the wall. Grapes and leaves were attached to this vine, forming a very natural effect. The repast was served at an early hour to permit of the company re" turning on the II o'clock train. Remaining unclaimed in the Post-office at Glen Ridge, N. J., on Oct. 20, 1906.
